

Unsolicited marketing phone calls and faxes should be outlawed and the offenders prosecuted and fined heavily. I receive many calls and faxes that are unsolicited and they do not provide a phone number by which I can remove myself from their call/send list. I resent paying for a phone line that is constantly tied up with unsolicited calls/faxes. It would seem that the phone companies should be responsible for BLOCKING and FILING SUIT against the offenders.